February 8, 1955

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

It seemed today, of all days, an imposition to take so much of your time to meet with the Foreign Operations Council. I can assure you, however, that its members were extremely grateful for the fact that you somehow found the time to comment to them on the dramatic developments of the morning in Russia. In fact each member personally expressed to me his appreciation that you sandwiched in two appearances before the Council amid your other engagements.

May I at this time also thank you for arranging the extremely informative and interesting briefings that were given by Dr. Allen and [redacted]. The information they presented will provide the kind of background which the Council members need, both in their discussions in the Council and in their efforts to interpret the current U.S. policies to the various important national organizations which each of them represents.

STAT

Thank you again for your cooperation and help.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Ohly
Deputy Director
for Program and Planning
